

- Reconstructive option for large cranial defects
- Provides an alternative to customized implants, grafts, and other implant materials
- Approximates shape of the occipital region while allowing surgeon to bend and trim implant to meet the needs of the individual patient
- For easier bending and shaping, submerge the implant in a hot, sterile saline bath (82-100°C, 180-212°F)
- Screws or sutures can be placed in any desired location
- Fully porous material for tissue ingrowth
- Easy to trim with scissors or scalpel
- Individually packaged, MR Safe, Sterile, 5 Year Shelf Life

CAT#	A	B	C
4439	114mm	101mm	6mm

